

한국지리환경교육학회지

The Journal of The Korean Association of Geographic and Environmental Education

JKAGEE

[Articles]

- Analyzing Content Articulation in the 2022 Revised Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Geography Curriculum Dongkyun Han (1)
- A Study on Elementary School Teachers' Conceptual Ecologies of Regionalization
- Focusing on Lather's Notion of 'Getting Lost' - Jiyoung Lee · Sangjoon Nam · JungHyang Na · Hyejeong Jang (15)
- Changes in Elementary School Students' Peace and Unification Sensitivity and Place Representations of the Korean Peninsula through a Peer Tutoring-Based Peace and Unification Project Kanghee Lee (35)
- An Analysis of the Alignment of 'Map Elements' Learning in Elementary Social Studies and Directions for Geographical Education Reconstruction HyunJu Kim (51)
- Analysis of the Singaporean Geography Curriculum Centered on Sustainability
- Focus on the 2022/23 Secondary and Pre-University Syllabus - JaYeon Yang (77)
- Impact of Community-Engaged Project-Based Service Learning on Pre-Service Teachers' Teaching Efficacy - A Convergent Mixed Methods Study - Bo Ae Chun · Eunjin Nam · Jin-Kyu Jung · Santiago Lopez (95)
- Development of a Place-Based Geomorphology and Environmental Education Program to Connect Students' Lives with Their Local Environment Sarang Kang · Jongmin Byun (117)
- Reviewing the Appropriateness of Regional Geographic Education in the College of Education Curriculum and Exploration of Alternatives Sungwook Cho (137)
- Metaverse-Based Learning Experiences and Changes in Pre-Service Geography Teachers' Dispositions Toward the Use of EdTech and Geospatial Technologies Jinhee Lee (153)

Vol. 34
No. 2
2026.05